Sudden Death of Myrtle Horton Shocks Village

Had Been Believed Recovering After Recent Gallstone Operation

Believed well on her way to recovery after undergoing a gallstone operation recently, Mrs. Myrtle Horton, 49, died suddenly at her home here Sunday evening. Her death was believed due to a blood clot.

She had returned home last Wednesday from the Oak Park hospital, where she had been convalescing after her operation. Her condition during and shortly after the operation had been reported as critical due to a gangrenous condition, but she had rallied and was apparently making excellent progress. Her death was therefore a greater shock to the members of the family and the community.

The Antioch rescue squad was called to the home to assist in efforts to revive her.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph, Antioch agent for the Sinclair Refining company; a son, S/Sgt. Virgil Horton, now stationed on Leyte; a daughter, Miss Gertrude Horton of Antioch; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Virgil Horton; a brother, George Martin, Lake Villa, and a sister, Mrs. Lizzie Wood, Toledo, O.

The Rev. Warren C. Henslee officiated at services conducted in the Strang Funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with officers of the Antioch Eastern Star chapter in charge of the Eastern Star ceremony.

Active in Organizations

Mrs. Horton was active in the Antioch Woman's club, Lakeside Rebekah lodge, the Willing Workers and the Antioch Methodist Ladies' Aid society, as well as in the Eastern Star order.

The body lay in state at the residence until 10 a. m. Wednesday, in keeping with Mrs. Horton's last wishes.

Burial was in the Millburn cemetery.

She was born in Chicago and was the daughter of the late John and Sophia Martin, who moved to this region 29 years ago.

Miss Lily Ames, III Three Weeks, Dies at Age of 88

Was Dressmaker Here for Many Years; Buried at Hickory Cemetery

The last of 10 children born to Elijah and Phoebe Ames, Hickory Corners, Miss Lily Ames, 88, passed away Sunday in the Lake County General hospital, where she had been a patient for the past 21 days.

Miss Ames was for many years a dressmaker in Antioch. She also did a great deal of quilting and was known throughout her life as a fine seamstress.

She was born in Antioch township Feb. 10, 1857, and was a resident of the township and village until about a year ago, when because of ill health she became a resident of the Lake County home for the aged at Libertyville.

The Rev. W. C. Henslee officiated at services this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Strang Funeral home. Burial was in Union cemetery at Hickory, in the Ames family plot.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her brothers and sisters, Miss Luella ("Ella") Ames, Truman Ames; Walter, of Pennsylvania, a Civil War veteran; Dr. Edmond Ames, for many years a physician here; Mrs. Jerome (Lydia) Story, of Antioch; Mrs. Oscar (Rispah) Grandy, Garfield, Kans.; Miss Watty Ames of Antioch, and Alice and Edith, who died in infancy.

A number of nieces and nephews survive.

Antioch Goes "Over the Top" in Red Cross Drive

Antioch township's Red Cross drive has already gone "over the top," Roman B. Vos, chairman, reported this week.

Funds received by Wednesday afternoon amounted to nearly $2,900, Vos estimated. The final total is expected to be considerably higher, since many organizations and individuals have not completed their reports.

Antioch's quota this year is $2,500. Persons and organizations whose pledges have not as yet been turned in, or who have not been contacted by the volunteer workers on the campaign committees, are being asked by Vos to bring their contributions to him as soon as possible, so that a complete local report may be made.

Success of the Illinois drive to enlist new members of the women's army corps for army hospital duty has been assured well in advance of the scheduled close of the campaign on April 1. The state's quota was 405 recruits, and actual enlistments reached 466 as of March 19. Governor Dwight H. Green, sponsor of the state-wide campaign, said the total would exceed 500 and might reach 550 by the close of the drive.

Governor Green expressed his gratification over the patriotic response of Illinois women to the appeal for hospital workers. He said "great credit is due the local chairmen of the drive throughout the state, and to the Illinois newspapers and radio stations which freely contributed space and time."

Voters Warned to Make Sure Ballots Are Properly Marked

Failure to Mark Special Ballot Will Count as "No" is Ruling

Antioch township voters are being asked by township officials to make certain that their ballots, including the special ballot on the tax for road purposes, are properly and completely marked before they are deposited in the ballot boxes at the election on Tuesday, April 3.

The vote on the tax for road purposes must be made on a ballot separate from that on which the names of candidates for township offices appear, it is pointed out.

"An unmarked ballot on the road tax counts as a 'no' vote," it is stated in a ruling received on these special ballots.

The road assessment ballot reads, "Shall a special tax for road purposes be levied?" and voters are being asked to mark these ballots in the spaces provided for "yes" or "no" before depositing them in the ballot boxes.

The petition calling for this assessment asked for the renewal of funds for re-sealing a number of roads in the township, and for the improvement of five additional stretches of roadway. The assessments for 14 of the roads were originally voted in 1939 for a five-year period, the maximum allowed under the Illinois state law. The renewal and additional assessments would also be for a five-year period.

The "People's Party" slate of candidates appears on the ballot unopposed this year. It includes C. F. Richards for clerk; Ernest L. Simons, for assessor; John Horan for collector; John Brogan, Joseph C. James, for justices of the peace; Edward J. Flanagan, James Webb, for constables; Mrs. Louise Vos, Mrs. Lillian Petty for trustees of the library board.

Polling places will be as follows: Precinct 1—St. Peter's parish hall. Precinct 2—Village hall. Precinct 3—Lotus school.

The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 5 p. m.

The Town of Salem is also holding its election Tuesday.

Dady, Dusher and Carroll Are G.O.P. Judge Candidates

State's Attorney William M. Carroll of Woodstock, Ralph J. Dady of Waukegan and William R. Dusher of Rockford, both judges of the 17th judicial circuit, were chosen as Republican candidates at the G. O. P. nominating convention Saturday in Waukegan.

Others mentioned for the nomination were David A. Joslyn, Woodstock attorney; Henry L. Cowlin, McHenry county judge, and Frank A. Oakley, Boone county judge.

Carroll, a World War 1 veteran, served as representative in the general assembly and is now in his third term as McHenry county state's attorney.

Dady has served on the circuit court bench since 1930; Dusher, for three years.

The Republican candidates' nomination is conceded to be virtual assurance of their election, since Democrats of the 17th district, in their nominating convention in Woodstock Monday night, decided not to place any nominees in the field this year.

In a resolution adopted at the convention, the Democrats stated that—"Whereas there are no fundamental issues involving the integrity, ability and probity of the candidates of the Republican party in the coming election, . . . the Democratic party feels that it is for the best public interests not to make any nominations at this time."

Arthur Meyers of Libertyville is chairman of the committee.

At the meeting, held in Lake Bluff, the association voted to accept Libertyville's offer of a site at Butler lake and a cash donation of $500 toward construction of the tower.

Bids are to be opened and a contract awarded at the April meeting.

"Clean-Up Week" to Start Here Monday

Anticipating by nearly a month the official Illinois "Clean-Up Day," proclaimed by Gov. Dwight F. Green for Saturday, April 28, the village of Antioch will have its "Clean-Up Week" commencing Monday, April 2.

Residents of the village are requested to place at the curb all material to be disposed of.

The street department truck will pick this material up during the week.

Brother of Antioch Resident Reported Missing in Action

Pfc. Donald Lux, Serving on Western Front, Missing Since March 5

Pfc. Donald Lux, 22, brother of Francis Lux, Antioch, has been reported missing in action on the western front since March 5, according to word received by his wife, Dorothy, of St. Louis, Mo., from the War department.

Pvt. Lux had arrived in England with an advance replacement unit Feb. 20.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lux of Waukegan and had made his home with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ruff, Waukegan, since he was nine years of age.

Before entering the service in November, 1942, he was employed in the post office at the Great Lakes naval training center. He served as a mechanic in the army air corps unit in the infantry and trained at Camp Lowry, Tex. His marriage took place at Fort Wayne, Ind., in August, 1943.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Eileen Ash, Mrs. Leone Janis and Miss Helen Lux, all of Waukegan.

Grass Blaze Is Finale to Fire Dept. Meeting

Indian Pt. Resident Praises Fast Response to Recent Alarm

Antioch firemen made a quick run to a grass fire in the Tahlman and Thiele subdivision on the north side of Lake Catherine Tuesday evening at 9:45 o'clock.

The call came in just as the members of the department, assembled in the fire station, were concluding a meeting at which a letter praising them for their quick response to a recent summons to Indian Point had been read by Chief L. R. Van Patten.

The letter, from E. G. Grundstrom, read in part as follows:

"I am a property owner and resident of Indian point. Last Saturday, March 20, while there I witnessed the efficiency of your department evidenced by your appearance on the scene of the fire eight minutes after you were notified of the conflagration. To assemble and travel that distance in such short space of time is most commendable. Accept my congratulations and admiration."

It is six miles to Indian point, the fire chief estimates.

The Antioch department, which is composed entirely of volunteers, has for many years had a reputation for speed in assembling its companies and arriving at the scene of fires. In pre-war days, it generally was under way within a minute or a minute and a half of receiving the alarm. The loss of some of its most youthful and agile members to the armed forces and defense work has slowed it a few seconds, but it still turns out in lively fashion, the chief comments proudly.

Fire calls during the past few days included one Saturday for a grass fire in Volk subdivision, on the Lake Marie side of Channel Lake road; one Saturday for a grass fire in Shunneson's subdivision at Grass Lake, and one Thursday afternoon for a grass fire in Woodcrest subdivision at Channel lake.

Joint Dinner With Men's Community Club is Being Planned

The Antioch Lions club will hold a joint meeting with the Lake Villa Men's Community club on Tuesday evening, April 10, at the invitation of the latter group's president, Dan S. Boyer.

The work of the Lake county sheriff's department supplied the subject matter for a talk given by Sheriff Walter Atkinson at the Millburn meeting. Telling of some of the problems that confront the sheriff's department and describing the types of equipment and procedures used in carrying on its work, Sheriff Atkinson expressed the belief that "the younger generation is no worse than the older generation was."

Waste Household Fat is Still Vital to War Effort

Dear Editor:

Contrary to the opinion of many persons, salvaging of waste household fats does not constitute an extra contribution to the war effort, but is necessary to offset the shortage of fats and oils resulting from imports being lessened or halted entirely since the war began.

This mounting deficit in our normal supply of fats and oils can be kept from becoming dangerous only by continued and increased salvaging of inedible household fats by the nation's housewives.

If the war ended today, we would still face a shortage of about one billion pounds of these irreplaceable products in 1945.

Farmers and cattlemen at the request of government and private agencies, have greatly increased their production of fat-producing animals and seed oil crops. As a result, we had in 1944 the largest number of domestic animals from which fats may be derived in our history, and seed oil crops reached an all-time high.

Both of these sources of fats and oils have reached their peak of production, and authorities predict a deficit of as much as a billion pounds this year because of the increased requirements of war industries.

The only source from which these essential products may be obtained is the nation's households. The 250,000,000 pounds housewives are asked to salvage actually constitutes only one quarter of this anticipated deficit.

Industry is doing its share, as are the services, all branches of which have stepped up their salvage operations for greater efficiency.

A new consumer study indicates that many housewives have in recent months relaxed their salvaging efforts, although just as many women are participating in the salvaging of used fats now as there were a year ago. This may be due in part to the belief many Americans held until recently that the war was practically over, a belief partly justified by the lightning like advance of our troops during the first months of the French invasion.

Recent developments, however, have shown that there is a long, tough fight ahead, and our war industries must keep producing night and day. They can keep up their task of supplying our armed forces with the munitions, medicinals and other supplies for which oils and fats are required only if the housewives of America renew their efforts to safeguard against a shortage of these vital materials by salvaging every possible drop of fats and oils that is no longer edible.

None of us wants to see a lag in war materials, and if this lag should result because of a shortage of fats and oils, we may be certain that more of these materials will be diverted from civilian products in order to keep the war machine going.

Corn Growers Urged

To Plan for Planting

Corn growers in 1945 will have a big job to do with a shortage of labor and equipment. Lost time from the fields will be serious. Costs will be high, so maximum yields must be had to provide adequate income. But there is a good probability of a strong market for the crop.

These are predictions made by John Airy whose work with a large hybrid corn company keeps him in contact with commercial corn growers throughout the cornbelt. In the February issue of Successful Farming magazine, Mr. Airy gave these tips for getting the job done:

(1) Repair field machinery early. (2) Remove stones, stumps and gullies. (3) Avoid late seeding of small grain. (4) Kill weeds ahead of the planter. (5) Make sure of seed supplies. (6) Study fertilizer needs. (7) Know the newer planting methods.

Much can be done to equipment ahead of the rush season. Growers who make repairs early will avoid the pitfalls of time lost in the field, parts out of stock and busy repairmen.

Fields can be cleared of such obstructions as old fences, gullies, trees, point rows, stack bottoms, stumps, large rocks and overhanging trees. Taking care of these before planting season reduces delays from breakdowns or getting stuck and may add productive fence-row acres to the field. Reed canary grass has been very effective in holding down gullies and forms a heavy sod that helps hold up machinery when crossing.

Some farmers make the mistake of trying to seed small grain so late it interferes with corn growing. Oats seeded early are generally good.

Fall-plowing stalk ground is becoming more common. Bad corn-borer conditions have been practically cleaned up by destroying or plowing under all stalks. Late planting means low yields. It also mixes up cultivation, haying and oats-cutting before the season ends.

Days may be saved by buying seed corn and checking planter plates before planting time. No one expects to replant, but knowing how and where to secure replant corn may prove a timesaver when time really counts.

High yields may be assured by maintaining soil fertility, using manure or commercial fertilizers and planting high yielding hybrids of satisfactory maturity.

Planting and cultivation methods go together and can be worked out to require less time per operation. With proper equipment and operation the yield of corn may be actually increased. Planting rate is important. Weed control is essential.

Incidentally, don't forget this: If you want 3 plants per hill you must plant about 3.3 kernels per hill. In general you get only 85 to 90 percent as many plants as you plant in kernels. Failure to allow for this may easily cost 10 to 15 percent in yield.

BE A TOP SERGEANT!

If you want to help your returned fighter in his problem of readjustment, avoid pushing or regulating him; top sergeant methods won't work at home. Encourage him to take up his favorite sport or hobby, to go back to work as soon as possible, and to lead a normal social life. But give him time to get acquainted again and adjust himself to the old way of living.

Need a new diet?

WHEN THE doctor "puts you on a diet" it may be because your previous regular diet was unbalanced. Insurance is something like this! Too often a person regularly renews the same amount of insurance each time without figuring that a change in values calls for revision of insurance. How about you?

Under French, Spanish and English rule at various periods of its early history, Mississippi experienced all the growing pains of colonial development. Want your appliances to work all the time?

Empty vacuum bag after using

Unless bag is emptied after each using, the necessary suction may be lessened. Turn bag inside out occasionally and brush thoroughly, but never wash it.

Don't replace fuse with a penny

Fuses act as safety valves for your electric wiring and equipment. You lose this vital protection if you use pennies or metal discs as substitutes.

Avoid overloading washer

When a washer must labor to take care of the overload, its life is shortened. So follow manufacturer's recommendations as to the right load for your washer.

Don't use fork to remove toast

Call this toaster an old reactionary, if you will, but he's right. Just a slip of the fork and a toaster can be stabbed right in his wire section.

Defrost refrigerator regularly

The longer a refrigerator goes without defrosting, the less efficient it is and the more current it uses. Be safe—follow manufacturer's defrosting instructions.

Don't drop iron on floor

More irons are damaged by dropping than any other way. You may break some vital part difficult or impossible to replace in wartime.

LIBRARY NOTES

Have you met the Melendy family of Seattle, Washington? Edna Ferber brings them to you in her colorful new novel, "Great Son", recently received at the Library.

Robert Hichens weaves an understanding story of love and marriage through the two decades following World War I in "Young Mrs. Brand". Much of the action takes place in Europe.

"The Bolinvars", by Marguerite Bayliss, is the lengthier book version of the serial in the Ladies Home Journal. It is a romantic novel of rare quality.

Temple Bailey's "Red Fruit" was received this week. For mystery fans, we have "Remembered Death" by Agatha Christie and "The Frightened Pigeon" by Richard Burke.

The vicissitudes of exile is the theme of "Lost Waltz" by Bertita Harding. It is a charmingly told tale of the family of Archduke Leopold Salvator of Austria.

In the field of national politics, Friedrich Hayek's "Road to Serfdom" is widely read.

Japanese shipping. His plane was pierced by machine-gun fire and he was wounded.

This was the second combat tour the Wadsworth pilot made with Air Group II. He previously saw action with the outfit when it was stationed in the Solomon Islands. During that period he saw heavy duty in the New Georgia campaign.

As result of his fine combat record, Lt. Strahan was selected to instruct naval aviation cadets in their primary flight training. He was chosen for this responsible job because it was felt that his ability as a flier would be of great value and inspiration to the fledgling pilots just commencing their careers as navy airmen.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Strahan of Wadsworth. Before entering the service he attended the University of Wisconsin, where he played football, and the University of Illinois.

Sgt. Marvin K. Hunt arrived from Camp Robinson, Ark., Monday to spend his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hunt, Lake Villa. Hunt has been at Camp Robinson since last July. He returned last May from 28 months' service overseas in the South Pacific area. He has been in the army since April, 1941.

James Cunningham, S 1/c, who is attending the Naval Training school at Del Monte, Calif., sends a word of praise—

"That 'News of the Boys' column can keep you in tabs with the fellows. The way the Navy and Army move everybody around, it must really be a job."

"I found that Joe Nader was in San Francisco, but before we got together the navy stepped in."

"Right now in California we are getting a little (quite a little) of that liquid sunshine."

"I'd better get to my studying again. I thought I was through with that after I got out of Antioch High, but you can't seem to get out of it."

"This is a wonderful change from the ice and desolation of Greenland," Pfc. Bennie G. Peterson writes from Camp Blanding, Fla. "My wife and son are here with me now. We are living in Gainesville, Fla."

Track Schedule

Well-Balanced Aggregation Will Enter on Program April 4

Antioch Township High school has about the best-balanced track team aggregation it has had in some years, according to an opinion expressed by Coach Albert Kroll earlier this week.

Antioch's track schedule will open April 4.

Captain Stuart Good seems to be headed for his best year, showing good time in both the 440 and 880 yard events.

Ralph Trieger, junior speedster, has looked good in practices in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard event.

Louis Nielsen, weight man, is expected to garner points for the Sequoit in the discus and shot competition.

D. Jones, sophomore, is also making a good showing.

Other members who are expected to do well for the team are R. Redmer, P. Wolowic, R. Scott, B. Duben, L. Mattson, K. Mattson, D. Weber, G. Grunow and B. Kraft.

Reduce Deaths

In all past wars disease has been responsible for many more deaths than have munitions. During the Spanish-American war seven died from disease for every one killed in battle. In the Civil war 50 per cent of the wounded succumbed. Since then there has been rapid progress in the treatment of disease, especially in the handling of wounds, so that in World war I only 6 per cent of the U. S. army, 7 per cent of the navy and 12 per cent of the marines who were wounded died. In the present war only slightly over 3 per cent of wounded men in our armed forces have succumbed.

Shall a special tax for road purposes be levied?	YES
	NO

This year...they're making "2" as big as "3"!

1944 1945  1. Uncle Sam needs just about as much money this year to fight the war as he did last. Whether we're fighting Germans and Japs, or Japs alone, there'll be no easing up till every last enemy is on his knees—or dead.	 2. But—to save time and work, there will be only 2 War Loans this year instead of 3, as there were in 1944.	 3. So—we've got to make 2 as big as 3! We've got to lend, in 2 chunks, approximately as much as we lent last year in 3. Which means that, in the approaching 7th War Loan, each of us will have to buy a BIGGER share of extra Bonds.
 4. 27 million smart Americans are getting a headstart! The men and women on the Payroll Savings Plan are now boosting their allotments for April, May, and June—so that they can buy more Bonds, and spread their buying over more pay checks.	 5. Come the 7th War Loan, these people will be sitting pretty. A good part of their extra Bonds will be already paid for. They won't have to scrape so hard for extra cash—because they're putting part of it aside right now!	REMEMBER... 1. The war costs just about as much... 2. Two loans instead of 3 in 1945!... 3. More extra Bonds in each loan! So... start saving NOW... for the 7th! 6. That's a very smart way to handle it. It's better for them—better for Uncle Sam. It's the easiest way to fulfill our obligation to the men who fight. Let's all start saving now for the 7th!

Pensions Rose 40 Millions in 1944 208,519 Disabled Receive About $30 Monthly.

WASHINGTON. — Pensions for soldiers disabled in the present war cost $40,513,789 more in 1944 than in 1943, the veterans administration noted recently.

At the end of 1944, the administration said in its annual report, 208,519 veterans of the present war were getting pensions for service-connected disabilities, with approximately 7 per cent of them totally disabled. The average pension is $30.67 monthly.

Compensation was being paid on June 30, 1944, to 337,311 veterans suffering from direct or indirect service disabilities. Compensation to that group during the entire year totaled $162,466,628, a drop of approximately $3,300,000 from the previous year. There were 4,194 fewer World War I pensions of that type on the rolls.

One person, Mrs. Esther Ann Hill Morgan, 87 years old, of Independence, Ore., daughter of John Hill, a private in the War of 1812, is receiving a pension as a result of that conflict.

Ten veterans of the Civil war, which ended nearly 80 years ago, are being cared for in veterans' hospitals and 383 of them are getting pensions.

The report mentioned that $40,380,500 was appropriated during 1944 for new hospital construction, with most of the funds to be used to provide beds for veterans with neuro-psychiatric ailments.

There were 63,800 veterans in administration hospitals at the close of 1944, with 13,707 of them from the present war.

All neuro-psychiatric hospitals in the system, the report adds, are giving or preparing to give electric shock therapy in preference to insulin shock therapy.

Dehydrate, Mail Girl, Liar Queen Tips Yanks

BURLINGTON, WIS. — Love-albeit dehydrated—earned for Capt. Hope Harrin of Conway, Ark., the undisputed title of world's champion liar of 1944. The title is awarded by the Burlington Liar club, unquestioned critic of tall tales.

Captain Harrin is a WAC, serving overseas. Here's her story, adjudged the best of 5,000 submitted in the club's 16th annual contest:

"Two years away from my girl friend became unbearable. I've been a mess officer and have done much work with dehydrated foods in the ETO. I wrote to my gal, a petite blonde, to go to a plant that processes fresh vegetables for overseas shipment and get herself dehydrated.

"She did.
"Immediately her mother put her in an envelope and sent her to me airmail. When the letter arrived I took her out, poured water over her, and in half an hour she was as good as ever—and here with me."

Captain Harrin is the second woman to win the "diamond-studded, gold-plated" championship medal. Mrs. Hale Barnhouse of Fowlerville, Mich., won it in 1936.

Peru's Forgotten City Now Feeling War Boom

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Iquitos, Peru, is no longer the "forgotten city."

Iquitos (population 34,000) is less than 500 miles from the Pacific as the crow flies. Yet it used to take a month to cover the distance. Freight from Lima had to go 8,000 miles through the Panama canal, down the Atlantic coast and up the Amazon.

Now, as Peru's isolated "Amazon empire" opens up rapidly because of war demands for rubber, rotenone, quinine and other products, Iquitos is only five days from Lima—two days by bus over the new Pucallpa highway and three days by river steamer.

Planes flying from Lima in five hours land at Iquitos several times a week.

$250 Handkerchief Just For Show; Not for Blow

WASHINGTON.—There's a handkerchief crisis in Washington. There are plenty for show but none for blow.

A quick survey of six drug-stores, two "five and tens," three men's haberdasheries and a department store disclosed that medium-priced handkerchiefs had gone the way of alarm clocks and nylon.

The cheapest was 50 cents and from there the price went up . . . way up to $250 for a slinky looking imported lace job.

Those $250 things, they're "just to look at," said the girl clerk.

728,400 War Veterans Placed Through USES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The United States employment service found jobs for more than twice as many veterans in 1944 as in 1943. In the 11 month period from January to November last year, the war manpower commission reported, job placements totaled 728,400 compared with 317,600 in the same period of 1943. Veterans of the present war accounted for about 75 per cent of the total.

J. J. Dunning Services to be Held Saturday

Former Antioch Painter, Decorator, Dies in Victory Hospital

Jesse J. Dunning, who had been ill for several months, died suddenly last evening at 8 o'clock in Victory Memorial hospital, where he had been a patient for the past few days. Funeral services will be held from the May chapel, Milwaukee avenue and Wilson, Chicago, Saturday. The Dunnings had been staying in Chicago, but were making plans to come to Antioch for the summer months. Mrs. Dunning had spent the last few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase, Gurnee, in order to near her husband while he was in the Waukegan hospital. Dunning was born in Minneapolis Sept. 8, 1883, and spent much of his life on the west coast. He was a contract painter and decorator by trade. The Dunnings came to Antioch eight years ago and lived here for seven years. Before their marriage 17 years ago, Mrs. Dunning was Miss Gertrude Weber of Chicago.

W. C. O. F. Sells Old "Paaschen Property"

The Rev. Richard Felix, Conception, Mo., a member of the Benedictine order, was an Antioch visitor early this week to complete details of the purchase of the "old Paaschen place" north of Antioch from the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, which had used the property as a home for the aged.

His brother, John J. Felix, is to take over the management of the farm.

Father Felix, in a visit at the Antioch News office, stated that it is planned to transfer printing equipment from Conception to the Antioch property, and that the order will continue its publication of religious periodicals here.

The establishment of a boys' school, specializing in pre-seminary training, is also planned.

Residents of the home have already been transferred to other localities.
